You hit home runs not by chance but by preparation.

— Roger Maris
#1. TWO DAYS?
EVERYONE IS TOO
BUSY FOR THAT.
LET´S DO IT
SHORTER

- A Key Stakeholder
#2. We’ve been doing Sprint planning several times, thus we are ready for our first Pi planning event.

- A ScrumMaster
#3. Features are not ready, but we can figure them out during Day 1 of PI Planning

- A Product Manager
DURING PI PLANNING

Whatever you can do or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, and magic and power in it. Begin it now.

—Goethe
#4. THE BEST ARCHITECTURES, REQUIREMENTS, AND DESIGNS EMERGE FROM SELF-ORGANIZING TEAMS.

— An Architect justifying his lack of preparation or not having his presentation ready during his first PI Planning
#5. RESPONDING TO CHANGE OVER FOLLOWING A PLAN

An skeptic Developer when he’s presented to SAFe’s multi-iteration planning.
#6. Business Value

To PI Objectives Are Set In Stone

— A busy business owner that won’t meet the team until the PI System Demo

AFTER PI PLANNING

Plans are nothing; planning is everything.

— Dwight D. Eisenhower
#7. We can accept the risk as things will improve over time.

— Wishful thinking from tired/hurried PI participants
