“70% of CEOs say their organization lacks the skills to adapt to digital change.”

—2017 Deloitte Global Human Capital Report
“Two things seemed pretty apparent to me. One was that in order to be a (Mississippi River) pilot a man had got to learn more than any one man ought to be allowed to know; and the other was, that he must learn it all over again in a different way every 24 hours.”

The SAFe Learning Journey
Continuous learning, tools, and connections for over 300,000 SAFe professionals

SAFe certification grants entry to the SAFe Community Platform, the ultimate resource for skill-building, problem-solving, career advancement, and advancing knowledge of SAFe. When faced with challenges, practitioners can get answers from a large community of practice, access members-only resources such as toolkits and professional development videos, and access SAFe news and developments.
Companies that offer comprehensive training programs have 218% higher income per employee than companies without formalized training. But it doesn’t stop there. These companies also enjoy a 24% higher profit margin than those who spend less on training. It would seem that continuing to invest in training and development, even when there are economic downturns, is the smart play.
